

IACL Research Group

« The Other Rule of Law Traditions in the World »

<https://www.iacl-aidc.org/index.php/en/research/research-groups/the-other-rule-of-law-traditions-in-the-world>

First Meeting in Luxembourg, 28-29 November 2019

Program

Convenors:

Luc Heuschling, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Luxembourg
Selin Esen, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Ankara

Wednesday 27 November 2019

Arrival of the participants

Thursday 28 November 2019

Meeting place: University of Luxembourg, Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance, 4 rue Alphonse Weicker, Luxembourg-Kirchberg, 1st Floor, Room A 101.

8.30 – 12.30 am: First Session

Aim and methodology of the research group: Introduction by Luc Heuschling and Selin Esen

Study of examples of national Rule of Law reports in the existing literature

Collective discussions on a common questionnaire

2 pm – 5.30 pm: Second Session

Collective discussions on a common questionnaire

Open debate: What's special about your own Rule of Law Tradition? What's the best way to present its identity to a foreign observer?

Friday 29 November 2019

Meeting place: University of Luxembourg, Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance, 4 rue Alphonse Weicker, Luxembourg-Kirchberg, 1st Floor, Room A 101.

8.30 – 12.30 am: Third Session

Open debate: What's special about your own Rule of Law Tradition?

Open floor to young researchers on Rule of Law (Fellows from the 're-constitution Collegium', Berlin)

Future members & future events of the research group